DID YOU MISS US?

THREE CHANCES TO SEE CLEVELAND BALLET PERFORM BEFORE DRACULA

Summer break is winding down, and our dancers return to Cleveland Ballet for the 2024-2025 season on September 3! Before we officially open our season with Dracula & The Masque of the Red Death in October, you have a few opportunities to see our artists perform: the Dance Showcase at Playhouse Square, Encore in Vermilion, and Strictly Gershwin.

Playhouse Square's 2024 Dance Showcase

September 6, 2024 | KeyBank State Theatre

Enjoy an evening of dance with some of Northeast Ohio's finest dancers, plus a special guest appearance. This year's Showcase will include a wide range of dance styles from classical ballet to traditional West African dance. Featured companies include: Case Western Reserve University's Department of Dance, Catherine Meredith & Artists, Cleveland Ballet, Cleveland Dance Project Company, Djapo Cultural Arts Institute, Inlet Dance Theatre, Ohio Contemporary Ballet, Pacific Paradise Entertainment, and SOÄR.

Encore in Vermilion

September 21, 2024 | Harbortown Fine Arts Center

Join Cleveland Ballet for a special, intimate evening at the Harbortown Fine Arts Center, starting with a wine and appetizer reception at 6 p.m. before the outdoor performance at 7 p.m. The diverse program includes Prologue from Sleeping Beauty, Walpurgisnacht from Gounod's Faust, and works from Cleveland Ballet's ChoreoLab including Dying Swan variation, Swing Street, and Îagûara.

Strictly Gershwin

October 3-6, 2024 | KeyBank State Theatre

Give our regards to Broadway! Set to the incomparable music of George and Ira Gershwin, this glittering blockbuster features a huge cast of performers including the Tulsa Ballet, Cleveland Ballet, Cleveland Pops, tap dancers, and vocalists that will transport you to the golden age of Hollywood. Derek Deane's choreography is a glamorous and complex blend of classical ballet and the unmistakable moves of 1920's Broadway.
