

CLEVELAND BALLET

BEST OF LUCK TO CLEVELAND BALLET'S SUMMER 2025 INTERNS!

Cleveland Ballet welcomed two summer interns, Caroline Moffa and Riley Gregory, to the administrative team for the past two months. It has been a pleasure to see them flourish and grow, and we hope their upcoming years are full of success.

CAROLINE MOFFA, Marketing Intern
Butler University | Class of 2026
Bachelor of Science in Dance Arts Administration
Minor in Business

“I’ve truly enjoyed my internship with Cleveland Ballet, thanks to the passionate administrative staff and incredibly talented dancers. One of the highlights of my time here has been participating in staff meetings, which have given me a deeper appreciation for the strong relationships that create a supportive environment. The heart of Cleveland Ballet shines brightly, and I’m grateful to have contributed, even in a small way, to its continued growth and success.”

RILEY GREGORY, Patron Services & Box Office Intern
Baldwin Wallace University | Class of 2027
Arts Management & Entrepreneurship
Minors in Dance and Film Studies

“My favorite part of my time with Cleveland Ballet has been meeting all of the amazing staff here and seeing how this organization comes together. Being able to learn from such a supportive team who are all so passionate about the work they do is incredibly inspiring. I’m so grateful for what this experience has taught me and how it has shaped my future goals!”
